

College Essay Writing Workshop!!

*Do you have questions about writing your personal statement or essay for college admissions and are not sure how to start?

*Are you worried the topic you may use is overdone?

*Do you have an essay that needs a little more pizzazz?

*Have you already written an essay but feel you may need to go in a different direction?

Who: Students wanting to learn how to write a strong essay for their college application and scholarships

What: We will have a guest speaker from a college admissions representative from a university who will be addressing FAQ's about writing the college application essay

When: Wednesday October 12th at 4:00

Where: Auburn High School Library

Come to library after school for this free informative event!

